Negative Economics of Blight

Study in Cuyahoga County (includes Cleveland): 2.1% to 9.4% reduction of value of properties near vacant &/or tax delinquent &/or foreclosed properties Whitaker & Fitzpatrick, Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland, March 2012

Study in Philadelphia: 6.5% average property value reduction citywide with some neighborhoods close to 20% reductions Vacant Land Management in Philadelphia report by Econsult Corporation, November 2010

Neighborhood blocks with higher concentrations of unmanaged vacant lots displayed lower house prices, about 18% Wharton School Study, 2004

Positive Economics of Blight Remediation

Flint, Michigan:

- $3.5 million of demolition activity produced $112 million in improved surrounding property values

Land Policy Institute at Michigan State University, 2007

Philadelphia:

- Cleaning and greening of vacant lots can increase adjacent property values by as much as 30%.
- Planting a tree within 50 feet of a house can increase its value by about 9%.
- Location of a house within 1/4 mile from a park increased values by 10%.

Wharton School Study, 2004

Land Banks & Delinquent Taxes

Tax liens and municipal claims

- held by participating taxing bodies may be “discharged”
- may be assigned (transferred) to a land bank

Land banks and tax sales

- Land bank may bid minimum at upset sale and obtain property for sale costs if no other bids
- Land bank may trump other bids at ‘free & clear’ judicial sale, obtain the property for costs, and ‘alter the form, substance and timing of payment of the sales price

Land banks in Allegheny County may obtain tax sale properties pursuant only to agreement with the public entities that have claims against the properties--three taxing bodies and municipal authorities

What does a land bank offer us?
